Baroness Sheila Hollins ........................................ APRIL 13 • 5.45pm - 7pm
“The Medicine of Mercy”
Baroness Hollins is an Emeritus Professor of the Psychiatry of Learning Disability at St George’s (University of London). She was President of the Royal College of Psychiatrists from 2005–2008 and in 2010 was created a Crossbench Life Peer in the House of Lords. She has served as President of the British Medical Association (BMA) and in 2014 was appointed to the Pontifical Commission for the Protection of Minors, an advisory body to the Holy Father. Baroness Hollins has also been a leader in the area of palliative care and assisting people with issues of grief and bereavement.
NOTE: This event will be held at the Philippa Brazill rsm Lecture Theatre at the Australian Catholic University (Entry via Brunswick St, Fitzroy).

Nathan Schneider .............................................. JUNE 6 • 5pm - 6.30pm
“Creating a Culture of Mercy in Public Life”
Nathan Schneider is a writer, editor, and professor of media studies at the University of Colorado Boulder. He is the author of Thank You, Anarchy: Notes from the Occupy Apocalypse (2013) and God in Proof: The Story of a Search from the Ancients to the Internet (2013). He will be interviewed by human rights advocate and professor of law, Frank Brennan SJ. Venue: The Oratory, Newman College

Msgr. Prof. Tomáš Halík PhD, DD ......................... JULY 11 • 5pm - 6.30pm
“Mercy and Truth: Healing Alienation in Our Church and World”
Tomáš Halík is a celebrated author, human rights advocate and professor. He has lectured at Oxford University, Cambridge University and Harvard University. He is the recipient of the 2014 Templeton Prize. He will be interviewed by human rights advocate and professor of law, Frank Brennan SJ. Venue: The Oratory, Newman College

Fr Andrew Stringfellow ..................................... AUGUST 9 • 5pm - 6.30pm
“Healing Grief with Mercy in Parish Life”
Fr Andrew was born in Yorkshire and educated in Oldham. He studied Philosophy and Theology at the Gregorian University, specialising in Moral Theology at the Angelicum University. He recently authored the book, The Gift of Grief (2015). His visit to Melbourne is in collaboration with Catholic Mission. Venue: The Oratory, Newman College

Susan Timoney, S.T.D. ........................................ SEPTEMBER 8 • 5pm - 6.30pm
“A Spirituality of Mercy: Living the Joy of the Gospel in Parish Life”
Susan Timoney is the executive director of the Department of Evangelization and Family Life for the Archdiocese of Washington. Dr Timoney earned her doctorate of Sacred Theology at the Pontifical University of Saint Thomas Aquinas in Rome and lectures at the Catholic University of America. Venue: The Oratory, Newman College

TO RSVP Contact Suzanne Hermon on 9926 5761 or email evangelisation@cam.org.au. For more information please visit www.cam.org.au/evangelisation | www.newman.unimelb.edu.au/calendar-events-and-alumni/holder-camara